

UpRiver Education

The Aligned ESL Teacher Cohort

WHO WE ARE

UpRiver Education is a WBENC certified educational consulting firm with a mission to maximize outcomes for one million multilingual learners. We specialize in professional development, coaching and program development support in the arena of English learner education, sheltered content instruction, equitable program design and ELE programming. With a special focus on asset-based education, we partner with schools to emphasize and leverage the strengths of culturally diverse students, educators and families. Dana Gastich French, lead consultant, brings over 20 years of experience as an ESL teacher, bilingual teacher, instructional coach and administrator. She now works with districts and educators across several states to enhance programming, instruction and assessment for multilingual learners and to bring clarity to the educators who serve them.
